IL SEGRETO DI PETRARCA E LA NASCITA DELLA POESIA MODERNA (C1-C2) (Also for Italians) NEW!

In the West, modern love poetry originates from Petrarch, who perfected the sonnet form subsequently used by all poets in the rest of Europe. He was also the first one to introduce modern introspection in his secret diary Secretum. His Canzoniere also called "The scattered fragments of my soul" bears witness to the transformations of Petrarch as a human and of his lifetime, which encompassed the black death of 1348. Petrarch was also the first humanist, starting the science of philology and unearthed many important manuscripts of ancient Roman authors that had gone lost for many centuries.
