ICS Young Scientist Award (under the age of 36)

The Italian Cultural Society recognizes the accomplishments of Italian scientists working in the Washington area. A $1,500 award is given to an Italian national working in the Washington area as a doctoral student or as a post-doctoral student or an equivalent (e.g., in connection with NIH, NIST or with NASA or a university) in the physical, biological, or medical sciences, mathematics, or engineering. The applicant must provide evidence of having distinguished him/herself in research while working in the United States. To be eligible, applicants must not have reached their 36th birthday by May 1.

Materials to be included in the application for the Young Scientist Award are:

- A document verifying the university degree held by the applicant
- A cover letter in English or Italian describing why the candidate should be considered a valid contender for the award
- A short biographical presentation of the candidate (curriculum vitae)
- Three letters of recommendation from superiors familiar with the work of the applicant, at least one from an American supervisor
- Evidence of excellence of work in the U.S., e.g., list of publications, patents, or other equivalent documents

The winner is invited and will receive the Award at our annual Gala at the Italian Embassy, on October 18th.
